

PARAGRAPH ON NATIONAL INTEGRATION

National integration is the awareness of common identity among the citizens of a country. It is a bond of unity, togetherness and brotherhood between people irrespective of their caste, creed, language and gender. It is essential for supporting the peace and progress of a country. National integration promotes communal harmony and challenges casteism, regionalism and linguistic differences. It improves the feeling of loyalty and fraternity towards the nation and people feel unity in diversity. It is essential to promote education, social and cultural unity and equal access to basic rights and amenities to foster a sense of integrity in the citizens of a country. The government should take some drastic steps to promote national integration. It is the duty of every person to oppose the forces and ideas that weaken national unity and integration so as to secure our national interests. Hence, national integration plays a significant role in making of a nation.
